MANOA HELD BACK AT GOLDEN GATE BY HIGH WINDS

Not before 5 o'clock this afternoon in the Matson steamer Manoa expected to dock at Pier 15 from San Francisco. A radio message received this morning by the passenger department of Castle & Cooke, Ltd., Matson agents here, from Capt. Troels Smith, the Manoa's commander, stated the reason for the boat's delay, but did not announce any change in the hour of arrival of port, which in a message yesterday he gave as 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Rough weather at the bar of Golden Gate, San Francisco, made the boat 12 hours late leaving San Francisco, according to the radio from Capt. Smith received by the local agents today. The channel at this point is narrow, and the tides swift, so that with the rough sea and high winds the attempt to cross the bar then would have endangered the ship. Waiting for the weather to calm down caused a 12-hour delay.

Capt. Smith has been putting on all possible speed since leaving the coast, in order to cut down the handicap as much as possible. If he arrives off port at 4 this afternoon he will have reduced it by three hours. The Manoa has 89 cabin passengers and 526 bags of mail.

CHIYO GETS FIRST FORETASTE OF XMAS RUSH

Taking 250 sacks of mail from Honolulu, including some Christmas parcels-post matter, the forerunner of the annual Christmas rush, the T. K. K. liner Chiyo Maru sailed at 9 o'clock this morning from Pier 7 for San Francisco.

Passengers from this port were three first cabin stowaways, Miss E. W. Smith, Miss Mildred Church, and Miss K. C. Rolfs. Mr. and Mrs. Snow changed their minds about going on, and decided to wait until another steamer, so pleased were they with Honolulu. H. A. Fari, a through passenger, also decided at the last minute to stop over. He is a representative of the United States Rubber Company.

When the boat arrived here yesterday, she had on board 1149 persons, including her crew. Freight for this port included 2000 packages of Chinese merchandise from Hongkong for Chinese merchants of Honolulu.

SHIPS ON ALASKA RUN LOSE BUSINESS SINCE GRAND TRUNK BEGINS

While freight rates on general merchandise to Honolulu from the coast, and to the coast from this port, are going up, a 50-cent raise having been announced a short time ago, freight rates on halibut have been reduced $2.50 a ton from Alaska ports to Seattle, according to the Coast Seamen's Journal.

"Four companies," says the Journal, "operating in the Alaska trade, the Alaska Steamship Company, Pacific Coast Steamship Company, Pacific Alaska Navigation Company, and the Border Line Transportation Company, have announced a reduction on fresh halibut freight rates from $7.50 a ton to $5 a ton from Ketchikan, Petersburg, Wrangell and Juneau to Seattle, in an effort to recapture some of the business which is going from Prince Rupert, B. C., overland to Chicago and the East via the Grand Trunk."

HIGH FREIGHT RATES HURT COAL BUSINESS

Exorbitant freight rates have caused a cessation of coal shipments from Newcastle to San Francisco, according to the Coast Seamen's Journal, which says there are no coal cargoes now on the way to the coast from the Australian port. Says the Journal:

"For the first time in 10 years there are no coal cargoes now on the way from Newcastle, Australia, to San Francisco. This is a condition which has never been known in local shipping for more than a decade and is accounted for by the fact that charter rates are so high that several ships are coming from the Antipodes in ballast to take heavy charters on the Pacific coast."

Bringing 39 cabin and 61 deck passengers from Hawaii ports, the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea arrived this morning from the Big Island. Pursuer E. W. Thompson reported her cargo for this port to include 21 cords of firewood, 139 bundles of oil, 36 bales of awa, 30 bags of empty bottles, 25 boxes of oranges, 13 barrels of wine, 10 bags of pumpkins, 25 sacks of rice, and 276 packages of general merchandise.

KRONPRINZ WILHELM WILL BE MADE OVER INTO PEACEFUL SHIP

The Coast Seamen's Journal is authority for the statement that the state department has granted permission for the German auxiliary cruiser "Kronprinz Wilhelm," now interned at Norfolk, to be restored to her normal condition as a passenger liner, but the vessel will remain interned until the end of the war.

The crew of the Kronprinz Wilhelm will be transferred to the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, also at the Norfolk navy yard, and the vessel then will be drydocked at Newport News for a thorough overhauling.

HARBOR NOTES

Expected tomorrow from Gaviota is the oil ship Maron Chilcott.

Another mail for San Francisco will go at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the Wilhelmina. Mails close at 8:30 at the postoffice.

The steamer Navarino, from San Francisco, is due here for bunkers December 15. The firm of David L. Peterson are local agents.

Examinations for their able seamen's certificates are being taken by the crew of the schooner Repeat, before it sails for Grays Harbor.

The Osaka Shosha Kaisha steamer Dairen Maru is expected hereabout December 11 or 12 from Yokohama. She left there Saturday, according to Castle & Cooke's shipping department.

Tomorrow morning Capt. and Mrs. W. Scoresby Routledge will sail in the Mauna Kea for Hilo. They did not go in their yacht the Mana, when it sailed for San Francisco Sunday, but will leave for the coast in a week or two.

Thirty-five cabin passengers are booked to leave here for the mainland at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the Matson steamer Wilhelmina sails for San Francisco, taking mail and freight for the mainland. The boat will sail from Pier 15.

American-Hawaiian steamers due here next month are the Arizonan, to arrive in Honolulu from San Francisco about December 15, and the Minnesota, due to arrive at this port December 22, from the Sound. The Panamanian will sail from Puget Sound December 25, arriving here around January 3.

The Japanese tramp steamer Bankoku Maru, which arrived off port in distress this morning, was here September 21, with a coal cargo for the inter-island, from Muroran. From this port she went to San Francisco, loading part of her present cargo there and the remainder at Portland for Shanghai. She cleared from Portland October 27.

Capt. William R. Foster, the harbor-master, is wondering where he will find room for all boats due the latter part of this week, not to mention the Bankoku Maru, which came today in distress and will have to stay a week or 10 days for repairs. Four ships are due Friday. They are the Great Northern, Ventura, U. S. army transport Dix, from Seattle, and the transport Sheridan, from Manila.

To make the steamers comply with the Seamen's Act, one fireman each has been dropped, by order of the inspectors of hulls and boilers, from employment on the inter-island ships Claudine, Kinai, Mauna Kea, Mauna Loa, Kilauea, Helene and Maui. One electrician each has been discharged from the Claudine, Mauna Loa and Kinai. The Mikahala and W. G. Hall have added an oiler each to their crews, at the inspectors' order.

That the Hull-Tier Great Northern is bringing 216 passengers for Honolulu was stated in a radio received last night by the office of Fred J. Waldron, Ltd., from the steamer due here at 10 o'clock Friday morning, from San Francisco, San Pedro and Hilo. The radio did not state whether the ship is bringing mail, nor how much cargo she has for this port. Hilo passengers were given as six. It is assumed that the 216 passengers for Honolulu are those who stay here, and that the rest return to the coast trip. The ship was reported as starting with more than 400 aboard.

Davies & Company, Ltd., local agents for the Canadian-Australasian line. The steamer is coming from Vancouver, and will sail for Sydney and way ports at midnight tomorrow. The Niagara should have arrived at daylight tomorrow morning, but may have been delayed by the general storm to eastward.

To date there are 36 persons booked for the Niagara. The steamer will dock at Pier 7 at approximately 7:30 tomorrow night. She is filled with through freight, so that there will be room here to take on only about 34 tons.
